COMMUNION TODAY

Communion will be served at four stations around the altar during the 10:30 service. You may consume the elements at the station or take them to one of the prayer rails. Please place your used cup in one of the baskets provided. Communion by intinction is available in front of the choir loft. If you wish to have someone pray with you, please go to the rail closest to the choir loft.

If you have a prayer request or praise for answered prayer, please fill out a yellow prayer slip (request) or a blue one (praise) found in the pew binder or in the pew rack. Place it in the brass bowl on the altar or give it to the pastor during the prayer hymn. Prayer requests are taken to the prayer room after worship.

Missions & Service

Second Mile Giving for September

Ut & Karen To Viet Nam (Missionary) .Ut trains Christian leaders in developing new congregations and nurturing Christians in Southeast Asia. He works to nurture Christian groups in the region that wish to be United Methodist. Karen's work focuses on recruiting women to study for pastoral ministry. She also works with a women's support group to encourage them to reach their full potential in Jesus Christ. Contact Mission Committee

The Homeless Shelter/Rescue Mission needs:

Laundry Soap, Hand soap

Thank you for your generous donations!

NEWS FROM THE PRAYER BLANKET MINISTRY

From Steve: "... my brother Tony passed away this morning ... The prayer blanket was appreciated by him."

From a family in Texas: a blanket is kept close to a wonderful mother who has her ups and downs but always insists her blanket is close.

From a family in Kentucky: a blanket is always out for my wonderful aunt who is a witness to her faith for all the family.

From a family in Indiana: a blanket is with a loved lady as she has quiet time with her friends and family during stage four cancer.

From a family in Illinois: numerous blankets as the one in my living room remind me to count my blessings and work to let my Jesus show.

Claude Baker writes: "I would ask that you keep in your prayers all that have received blankets, and in particular, the family of Tony."

Ring Those Bells!!!

Bell Choir practices begin Wednesday, September 8. Spirit Rock (5 PM) is for 6th through 12th graders; Jubilant Praise (6 PM) is for adults.

New ringers and those wanting to learn to ring are encouraged to contact Lora Ward (708-895-3877)
